

AHSAA BUSINESS MEETING
FEBRUARY 9, 2006
HOT SPRINGS CONVENTION CENTER

Annette Scogin called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m. She acknowledged Kathy Tadlock and past presidents of the AHSAAA.

Jim Dickerson gave the Treasurer's report. We roughly have over $13,000 in the bank

Gary Segrest gave the Membership report. We currently have 137 members.

Ronnie Carter gave a report from the golf tournament. We had 18 players this year.

Dick Johnson gave the Corporate Sponsorship report.

Doug Killgore gave a report concerning the LTC courses. We had five A.D.'s take the CAA exam on Wednesday. LTC 511 will be offered at Fayetteville during the summer conference. Bryant will host an LTC Institute in July and offer 501, 502, and 504.

Fred Lilly introduced the new format for AD of the Year award that will be implemented next year. He also announced this year's award winners.

AD of the Year Jim Dickerson - Russellville
State Award of Merit (Inside) - Fred Lilly, Camden
(Outside) Randy Rainwater, Drive Time Sports
Distinguished Service Award - (Inside) Annette Scogin, Springdale
(Outside) Wal-Mart Foundation
National Federation Citation - Dick Johnson, Fayetteville
Hall of Fame nominee - Jim Rowland

Bill Mayo gave the Hall of Fame report.

Annette introduced first year athletic directors.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m..